KTR slams Telangana Governor's speech, calls it 'Congress press meet'

issues like Congress's

Hyderabad, Mar 12 (TSIT) Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) Working President K T Rama Rao (KTR) strongly criticised Telangana Governor Jishnu Dev Varma's budget speech, describing it as a workers' "Congress press meet" rather than dignified address.

Talking to the media at the assembly premises, KTR accused the ruling Congress government, led by Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy, of scripting the speech with "blatant lies and half-truths" to mask what he called 15 months of "failed governance." He expressed disappointment that the address omitted key unfulfilled promises and ongoing crises in agriculture and irrigation. Highlighting the recent protest by contractors demanding clearance of pending bills, KTR accused the Congress government of corruption, claiming they were being pressured to pay a 20 percent commission. He criticised the state's handling of the Medigadda Barrage issue, blaming the government's negligence for extensive crop damage and hardship faced by farmers. challenged KTR Congress' claims about farm loan waivers, asserting that they had only covered 25-30 per-Further, KTR dis-Congress' claims of securing Rs 1.79 lakh crore in investments at the Economic Forum in Davos, calling it an "absolute lie." He alleged that previously announced projects had been relocated to other states due to Congress' inefficiency.

KTR warned that Telangana's people increasingly were of what he described as Congress's failures, predicting a public backlash soon.

CM's Public Program Achieves 66% Success Rate: Chinna Reddy

Hyderabad, March 12, TSIT: Dr G. Chinna Reddy, Vice Chairman of the State Planning Commission, said that if the problem goes to the roots, the problem will be fully result in the problem of solving the prob-

Reddy was the chief guest at the Symposium on the topic of "Citizen Centric Governance and Public Governance and Public Governance" "" Citizen Centric Governance Wednesday. Speaking on the occasion, Chinna Reddy said that CM public officials and staff are dedicated to solving the problems of the people.

Chinna Reddy said that the public has completed 110 weeks so far, 92,072 so far, 53,303 applications on various issues. He said the success rate of applications is 66%. Chinna Reddy said that the remaining 38,769 applications have been sent to the relevant department officials to address various schemes.

Chinna Reddy said that it is a public belief that the public will be confident that the public will be solved if the public is confident in the public.

He said that a large percentage of the darshan is coming for houses, ration cards and pensions, and many applications for dharani deficiencies. Chinna Reddy explained that the system has been set up as an armored system, branch wise desk officers, nodal officers, state nodal officer and online departments by sent to the respective branches. Chinna Reddy said that the prices are not only receiving them and talking to the relevant authorities on the phone. Divya Devarajan, a state nodal officer, said that the CM is taking the public and implementing it. Divya said steps would be taken to solve the problems at the field level in the coming days. Hydra Commissioner V. Ranganath said that action is being taken on the rules of the ponds and naalas. Ranganath said that the public is confident in the government system and that it is not tolerated by the Kabja of public lands and assets.

End Violence Against Women: Aidwa Mandal Secretary Nirmala

info.southindiatimes@gmail.com

Bachannapet, March 12, TSIT: The All India Women's Democratic Association (AIDWA) Mandal Committee unfurled its flag in Gopal Nagar Mallu Swarajam Colony, reaffirming its commitment to women's rights. Speaking at the event, AIDWA Mandal Manepalli Secretary Nirmala emphasized the need to end violence against women and uphold justice. She recalled that AIDWA was formally established during its first national congress in Chennai on March 10-12, 1981, uniting various women's associations across states under one banner.Several members, including Sare Mamatha, Gaddala Ellavva, Pakala Kavitha, and others, participated in the event, reinforcing the collective resolve to fight against gender-based oppression.

Sarpanchs pending bills should be release immediately

Bachannapet, March 12, TSIT Former sarpanchs of Bachannapet zone were arrested by the police on Wednesday during the Chalo Assembly programme, which was launched by the sarpanchs that were not pending bills. President of Mandala Serpents Form Gangam Satish Reddy alleged that the government was involved in factional achievement of former sarpanchs. He alleged that it was a vicious act of not paying Rs 1300 crore to all the gram panchayats across the state. In the village panchayats, street lights, internal sewers, village nature, farmer platform, Vaikuntha Dham, our hometown our school, village progress and JP buildings have been undertaken for development. The pending bills are facing 12,769 former serpents in the state. He said that only 20% of the contractors in the last government have taken a commission and only to release the bills and delaying the bills of the sarpanchs, saying that there will be no commission on sarpachhs. Under the direction of SI SK Hamid, the former Sarpanchs of Bachchanpet were taken to the station. Afterwards, they left on their own chord. Former sarpanchs were Narredla Bal Reddy, Vaddepalli Mallareddy, Konetti Swamy, Musini Raju Goud, Shivaratri Raja Narasaiah, Tatireddy Shashidhar Reddy, Parvatham Madhu Prasad and Mohammed Azam.

WARANGAL, March 12, 2025 (TSIT): The Kakatiya Institute of Technology and Science, Warangal (KITSW) has inaugurated a one-week Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on Innovation & Entrepreneurship from March 10-15, 2025. The programme is sponsored by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell (MoE's MIC), Government of India.

The event was inaugurated by Mr. Ismail Akbani, CEO of AIC Mahindra, Hyderabad, who emphasized the importance of fostering an entrepreneurial mindset among educators to drive innovation and industry-academia collaboration. He highlighted the FDP's goal of equipping faculty members with advanced pedagogiapproaches, research insights, and practical applications in entrepreneurship and innovation.

Guest speaker Dr. Ravi Chandra Raju Gangapatnam provided insights on strengthbased applications, including problem-solving, critical thinking, communication, mentoring, and research in advanced technologies. KITSW Principal Prof. K. Ashoka Reddy delivered the presidential remarks, while Mr. Ganesh Iyer, Deputy Manager at Centum Learning (part of upGrad), conducted a session on entrepreneurial leadership and innovationdriven business models. The day concluded with an interactive workshop featuring case studies and collaborative discussions.

Date: 13-03-2024

Place: Mahabubabad

Dr. K. Raja Narendra Reddy, Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Head of Ci2RE, highlighted the institution's commitment to fostering innovation, research, and entrepreneurship among students. The FDP is expected to empower faculty members to mentor future innovators and strengthen India's start-up ecosystem. The event was attended by former Rajya Sabha MP & KITSW Chairman Capt. V. Lakshmikantha Rao, Treasurer P. Narayana Reddy, and former MLA & Additional Secretary Vodithala Satish Kumar, who applauded the efforts of the Ci2RE team and faculty in successfully organizing the FDP.

Over 60 faculty members from various institutions across the country participated, along with Dr. V. Raju Reddy (FDP Co-Coordinator) and Dr. D. Prabhakara Chary (Associate Professor & PRO).
