

Congress seeks CBI probe into Bharatmala land acquisition scam

STAFF REPORTER RAIPUR

The Congress legislators in the Chhattisgarh Assembly on Wednesday demanded a CBI probe into the alleged irregularities in the distribution of compensation for land acquisition for the Bharatmala road project.

MLAs also staged a walkout after the BJP government turned down their demand of a CBI or a House Committee probe even after accepting the irregularity.

The issue was raised by Leader of Opposition Charandas Mahant during the Question Hour.

The state government admitted that irregularities in the land acquisition in a few villages in Raipur caused a loss of Rs 43.19 crore to the Union government.

Further, it was accepted that a compensation of more than Rs 350 crore was paid, and funds were misappropriated in the execution of the entire Bharatmala project.

A few officials were suspended, but the CBI needs to probe the entire matter, the Congress leader Mahant demanded.

In his reply, Revenue Minister Tank Ram Verma said the notification for land acquisition for the Raipur-Visakhapatnam economic corridor under the Bharatmala project was issued in January 2020 and the compensation was awarded on March 18, 2021.

As complaints were received pertaining to the distribution of compensation, the Raipur collector was tasked to conduct a probe in August 2022, he said.

The minister accepted that irregularities were committed in the land acquisition process, such as the partition of land after the issuance of notification for acquisition, on-paper acquisition of already acquired land, and allocation of compensation to persons other than the actual owner.

As per the probe report received from Raipur Collector on April 26, 2024, compensation had been distributed by dividing 13 original Khasras (land tracts) into 53 small plots in the village Nayakbandha, he said. The probe report also mentioned that the government suffered a financial loss due to the inclusion of cases of purchase and sale after the issuance of the initial notifications and approval of compensation by preparing fake transfers of ownership on back dates, he said.

Based on the investigation report, action was taken against the guilty officers, the minister said.

Mahant then said that as the minister was accepting that there were irregularities, an FIR should be registered against the guilty officials and a case should be handed over to CBI.

The minister replied that the government will ensure a thorough probe by the Raipur Divisional Commissioner, and no one will be spared.

The Leader of Opposition further demanded from the Speaker that at least a probe by a House Committee must be ordered. However, the Revenue Minister reiterated that the matter is being probed by the Commissioner and that was sufficient. Dissatisfied with the answer, Congress members later staged a walkout from the House.

Bastar Pandum to be a milestone in establishing peace: CM

STAFF REPORTER RAIPUR

Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai said on Wednesday that the Bastar Pandum will be a milestone in establishing peace in the Naxal-hit region.

He said this at an event in which he released the logo of the 'Bastar Pandum 2025' and its booklet in Assembly premises in Raipur.

Pandum commenced on March 12 in all seven districts of the Bastar division. It is being held as part of efforts to preserve the unique culture of the region.

Sai said that the event will bestow the cultural heritage on the new generation and provide a strong platform to elevate local artists. It will also provide a close look into the real life of Bastar.

He added that the development of Bastar and connecting its people to the mainstream was the top priority of his government. He also spoke of the provisions in the state budget to eradicate Naxalism and works done to provide basic needs in sensitive areas through the Niyad Nellanar scheme. The event will hold competitions in three phases and seven genres—tribal dance, song, drama, music, costumes and jewellery exhibition, crafts-painting and tribal cuisine.

The first phase will be held at the Janpad level from March 12 to 20, the second at the district level from March 21 to 23 and the final phase at the division level from April 1 to 3 in Dantewada district.

House uproarious over allotment of land to JSPL

STAFF REPORTER RAIPUR

Opposition Congress members on Wednesday created a ruckus in the legislative assembly over the allotment of Kelo Reservoir Project land to Jindal Steel and Power Limited after making changes in its land use.

The issue was raised in the house by Umesh Patel, and the Revenue Minister, Tankram Verma, replied that he was unaware of any change in land use and its allotment to the industry. Congress legislator and former Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel said that it was surprising that the minister was unaware as the change in the land use could not be made without the consent of a committee formed by the minister. It is a serious matter and a House Committee probe must be ordered, Baghel demanded from the chair.

The revenue minister, replying to the demand, announced a departmental probe but the opposition members dissatisfied with the announcement staged a walkout still demanding a House Committee probe.

PM JANMAN illuminates 77 backward tribal villages

STAFF REPORTER MAHASAMUND

A total of 77 special backward tribal villages in Chhattisgarh Mahasamund district now have complete electricity connections thanks to the Pradhan Mantri Janati Adivasi Nyaya Maha Abhiyan (PM JANMAN), the government said on Wednesday.

About 330 settlements of these villages did not have electricity. Electricity had not reached a majority of them since independence.

The authorities, now, are planning to improve other essential facilities, such as roads, drinking water and health services.

The villagers expressed hope that the changes would bring more comfort and convenience to them.

Under the PM JANMAN scheme, a target has been set to provide basic facilities to all the backward and remote villages of the country.
