KERALA TO LAUNCH WAYANAD-FOCUSED TOURISM PROMOTION IN BENGALURU

Kerala is launching a campaign in Bengaluru with focus on tourism in Wayanad as part of efforts to sustain travel and tourism in the hill district that underwent a calamity recently, Minister PA. Mohamed Riyas said. The Minister revealed this while addressing a meeting of tourism sector stakeholders from Wayanad, Kannur & Kozhikode. Representatives of various tourism sector organisations, entrepreneurs and service providers attended the meet. Cinema houses in Bengaluru will display advertisements featuring Wayanad tourism, while the FM radios will feed news related to the natural beauty & hospitality facilities in Kerala's north-eastern district bordering Karnataka & Tamil Nadu, he told reporters here. Recalling that a similar campaign in 2021 had benefited Wayanad tourism, the Tourism Minister noted that the scenic district has become a weekend destination for Bangaloreans. "The July 30 landslides gave the travellers a scare. We need to get over this phase," he added. Noting that the disaster has affected Wayanad's tourism sector in several ways, Riyas said the consequent lull in economic activities has badly affected all stakeholders, from small traders to resort owners.
